About the Author

The Beginnings:

As a young mother she used her natural creative abilities to build home businesses. Some of her businesses were creating jewelry and traveling to display and sell in art fairs, always traveling with her children. Baking cheesecakes and calling the company Last Nights Cheesecake, baking them Friday night and selling them at the farmers market on Saturday morning. As a seamstress she created one of a kind men's Western shirts that sold in boutiques.

Her creativity grew into becoming a professional musician where she worked in the showcasing clubs of East Detroit writing, playing guitar, singing and managing her bands.

Her Skills:

As a businesswoman and an artist her experiences as an entrepreneur, resource manager, musician, photographer, and website designer have shaped her understanding that what you put in your mind, your body, and the earth makes a difference to all of us.

Who she is now:

Referring to herself as an Ecopreneur and her online business as an Internet Eco Business she is committed to writing and developing ways of communicating to people that both our actions and how we spend money have the possibility of creating a healthy, more peaceful planet.

This idea has blossomed into being the author of Your Money, Your Power: 10 Ideas for Mindful Spending to Create a Healthy, Green Planet, and building an internet eco business with the focus on current information via blogs, website resources, writing articles and personally selected products for purchase.

You'll find her articles on SelfGrowth.com as an Abundance Expert and ezineArticles.com as an Expert Author.

Passions and a bit personal:

One of her passions is exploring new horizons, particularly with her husband, Tom, on their motorcycle. With her children grown she enjoys her grandchildren, gardening, the wildlife around her home, working on her internet eco business, writing and her three Shar Pei's - Rose, Bud and Suzie. She lives in the Flint, MI area.
